

First Rowlett UMC Rotating Art Show

Celebrating Faith through Art

Eligibility and Details:

The mission of this rotating show is to allow the artists in our church to have a space to display the art that God has inspired them to create, and allow the Artist to praise God with their talent hopefully inspiring others to see God working through their life and art work.

The Church will not be collecting fees or conducting sales.

Each entry must be the artist original composition: it may be the original or a print.

Different Artist will be selected to display their works of art for a selected month. The artist must be able to help hang their pieces at the beginning of their selected time and take down at the end of their turn.

The Display will be work from members or artist that regularly attend First Rowlett UMC.

The art work must be appropriate for church display, with an explanation: how it depicts your faith, or God's influence in your life and art work.

The Art work must be framed ready to hang with eye hooks and wire are recommended.

Plexi-glass is recommended instead of glass, the church will not be responsible for brakeage

To enter, e-mail a digital copy of the art work: title, size and your art statement (explanation of how the art work depicts your faith or God's influence in your life) to the art committee. Englert7@verizon.net

Denise.cribbet@gmail.com

